

Hillary Clinton or Donald Trump?

If you're unhappy with your choices for president, you're not alone. One candidate is a braggart, and the other candidate has a hard time telling the truth. One has made billions of dollars in the construction business, and the other has received hundreds of millions by cozying up to Wall Street bankers.

It's not an easy choice.

But, in spite of the obvious character flaws of both candidates, world renowned neurosurgeon Ben Carson has decided to cast his vote for Donald Trump. Why?

Dr. Carson is voting for Donald Trump because he agrees more with Trump than with Clinton on the issues that are important to him, issues like school choice, the right-to-life, job creation, taxes, and national security.

Ben Carson is joined by many other prominent African Americans in supporting Donald Trump—Charles Evers (brother of Medgar Evers), promoter Don King, NFL stars Shawne Merriman, Terrell Owens and Herschel Walker, world champion boxer Mike Tyson, movie star Stacey Dash, and hundreds of pastors, businessmen, and African American leaders from all walks of life.

Perhaps you should too.
